TO WHOM SOEVER IT MAY CONCERN

This is certified that our School Building of Bal Vidya Mandir Senior Secondary School, Charbagh, Lucknow (U.P.) was constructed in the year b/w 1955 to 1960 and the inauguration of the it was made by former Prime Minister of India, Late Lal Bahadur Shastri Ji on Dt. 19th November, 1964. At that time, there was no existence of Lucknow Development Authority & other such institutions for deciding the standard norms of construction of School Buildings. So, our School Building was constructed with the extra safety point of view from our own side.

Therefore, it is not required to obtain any Certificate for the building safety like Building Safety Certificate. Already the entire parameters of safety & security have been kept in mind at the time of construction of this School Building which is going to complete about 60 years of it's age.
